Lesson Notes:	The Road to Emmaus – Luke 24
How can I serve	e? Where am I needed?

Pray First, and consider these great opportunities!

Begin a Discipleship/Study Group or Prayer Group. (Need Guidance? See Stephen) Conduct Bible Correspondence with Sumner County Jail inmates.

Donate soft-cover Bibles and/or plastic framed Reading Glasses for SCJ inmates.

Contribute to our Old Union food pantry ministry.

Visit the residents of Morningside. Sundays are great, but the residents are there daily too.

Design posters and signs that incorporate our OUKids memory goals.

Challenge yourself to join in with OUkids. Sit up front, memorize, be excited with them! Help develop and lead community outreach plans. Our neighborhood is growing!

Pray daily for our leadership and look for opportunities to help them.

Help plan an event that brings our church family closer together.

Check with those we have not seen in while. Your concern could make the difference! Invite a visitor to lunch with you today. Be interruptible!

Pray about becoming a foster or adoptive parent. Talk with those who have already. Consider spending time on a mission trip with your family.

These are just a few. If you have questions or need resources, please talk with any of our current ministry leaders. Let's do this!

¹⁷Whatever you do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks through Him to God the Father. Colossians 3:17

Scripture, Song & Prayer

1 Corinthians 15:1-4 (NASB)

Now I make known to you, brethren, the gospel which I preached to you, which also you received, in which also you stand, by which also you are saved, if you hold fast the word which I preached to you, unless you believed in vain.

For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received, that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, and that He was buried, and that He was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures,

Memory Passage, October 13th -November 16th

Romans 11:33-12:2 (ESV) Oh, the depth of the riches and wisdom and knowledge of God! How unsearchable are his judgments and how inscrutable his ways! "For who has known the mind of the Lord, or who has been his counselor?" "Or who has given a gift to him that he might be repaid?" For from him and through him and to him are all things. To him be glory forever. Amen. I appeal to you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect.
