	Psalm 137 (NASB) By the rivers of Babylon, There we sat down and wept, When we remembered Zion. <sup>2</sup>Upon the willows in the midst of it We hung our harps. <sup>3</sup>For there our captors demanded of us songs, and our tormentors mirth, saying, "Sing us one of the songs of Zion." <sup>4</sup>How can we sing the LORD'S song in a foreign land? <sup>5</sup>If I forget you, O Jerusalem, May my right hand forget her skill. <sup>6</sup>May my tongue cling to the roof of my mouth if I do not remember you, if I do not exalt Jerusalem above my chief joy. <sup>7</sup>Remember, O LORD, against the sons of Edom the day of Jerusalem, Who said, "Raze it, raze it to its very foundation." <sup>8</sup>O daughter of Babylon, you devastated one, How blessed will be the one who repays you with the recompense with which you have repaid us.<sup>9</sup>How blessed will be the one who seizes and dashes your little ones Against the rock.

Memory Passage, September 6th – October 10th
Psalm 139:7-12 (ESV)

(Memory and Study material are available for your home. Just ask Stephen.)

Where shall I go from your Spirit?
Or where shall I flee from your presence?
8 If I ascend to heaven, you are there!
If I make my bed in Sheol, you are there!
9 If I take the wings of the morning
and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea, 10 even there your hand shall lead me,
and your right hand shall hold me.
11 If I say, “Surely the darkness shall cover me,
and the light about me be night,” 12 even the darkness is not dark to you;
the night is bright as the day,
for darkness is as light with you.

Today’s Lesson: Obadiah and Jesus
Pulpit Reading: Psalm 137

A Psalm composed by those suffering the exile in Babylon and dreaming of justice.
Specifically against the EDOMITES. To know more of the Edomites, consider:
Genesis 25:27-34, Numbers 20:14-21, 1 Kings 11:14-25, Ezekiel 25:12-14, and Obadiah.

And what if Edom represents all of fallen humanity apart from a relationship with God?
Those who trade His glory for self-pride, achievement, credentials, or the demise of others?
In what ways might our life resemble the godless Edomites?
The call is for us to REPENT.

Almighty God, Sovereign, and Just is the only reason we take our next breath.
And “the day of the LORD draws near on all the nations.” – Obadiah 1:15
“The house of Jacob will be a fire...but the house of Esau will be as stubble.”
